The Kiss Jozsef barracks are located on Ullői út 135, Budapest.
Beginning May 1952, a Hungarian infantry regiment of about 2,000 men was stationed at this installation.

Legend to the enclosed sketch of Kiss József barracks in Budapest:

1. 2-story building for NCO-s.
2. 3-story building. On the first floor are the offices of the quartermaster, the inspecting officer of the barracks, and also the quarters of the barracks guard. The second floor is occupied by offices of the regimental command and the headquarters of two battalions. The officers' mess is on the third floor.
3. 2-story building, for the accommodation of NCO-s. On the first floor is the mess and on the second floor the dormitories.
4. 3-story building which serves as barracks for a battalion, approximately 700 men. Storage rooms and the mess are located on the first floor.
5. Same as No. 4, above.
6. 2-story building for the accommodation of NCO-s.
7. 2-story building. The first floor is used as a brig; the second floor is utilized as a dispensary and as a post exchange.
